From the Democratic Review for October. LINES,

WRITTEN ON READING SEVERAL PAMPHLETS PUE-LISHED BY CLERGYMEN AGAINST THE ABOLITION OF THE GALLOWS. BY JOHN & WHITTIES.

The suns of eighteen centuries have shone,
Since the Redeemer walked with men, and made
The fisher's boat, the cavern's floor of stone.
And mountain moss, a pillow for his head;
And He, who wandered with the peasant Jew
And broke with publicans the bread ef shame.
And drank, with bleasings in His Father's name,
The water which Samaria's outcast drew. Hath now his temples upon every shore.

Altar and shrine and priest—and incense dim

Evermore rising, with low prayer and hymn, From tins which press the temple's marble Or kiss the gilded sign of the dread Cross Me bore!

II. Yet, as of old, when, meekly "doing good," Yet, as of old, when, meekly "doing good,"
He fed a blind and selfish multitude,
And even the poor companions of His lat
With their dim, earthy vision knew Him not.
How ill are His high teachings understood!
Where he hath spoken Liberty, the priest
At His own alar binds the chain anew;
Where he hath bidden, to Life's equal feast,
'The starving many wait upon tas few;
Where He hath spoken Peace, His name hath been
The loudest war-cry of contending men;
Priests, pale with vigils, in His name have blessed
The unsheathed sword, and laid the spear in rest,
Wet the war-banner with their sacred wine,
And crossed its blazon with the holy sign;
Yes, in His name who bade the erring live. And crossed its blazon with the noly sign;
Yes, in His name who bade the erring live.
And daily taught His lesson—to forgive!—
Twisted the cord and edged the murderous steel;
And, with His words of mercy on their lips.
Hong gloating o'er the pincer's burning grips,
And the gran horror of the straining wheel;
Fed the slow flame which grawed the victim's limb,
Who saw before his searing eye-balls swim
The image of their Christ, in cruel zeal.

Through the black torment-smoke, held mockingly to him The blood which mingled with the desert sand,
And beaded with its red and ghastly dew
The vines and olives of the Holy Land—
The shricking curses of the hunted Jew—
The white-sown bones of heretics where'er
They sank beneath the Crusade's holy spear—
Goa's dark dungeons—Malta's sea-washed cell,
Where with the hymis the ghostly fathers and
Mingled the groans by subtle torture wrung,
Heaven's anthera blending with the shrick of Hell!—
The midnight of Bartholomew—the stake
Of Smithfield, and that thrice-accursed flame
Which Calvin kindled by Geneva's lake—

Which Calvin kindled by Geneva's take—
New England's scaffold, and the priestly sneer.
Which mocked its victims in that hour of itear,
When Guilt isself a husan sear might claim-Bear witness, O Thou wronged and merciful One! That Earth's most bateful crimes have in Thy name been

Thank God! that I have lived to see the time
When the great ruth begins at last to find
An atterance from the deep heart of mankind,
Earnest and clear, that ALL REVENGE IS CRIME!
That Man is holier than a creed—that ail
Restraint upon him must consult his good,
Hope's sunshine linger on his prison wall,
And Love look in upon his solitude.
The beautiful lesson which our Savioer taught
Through long, dark centuries, its way has wrought
Into the contains mind and popular thought;
And words, to which by Galilee's take shore
The humble fishers listened with hushed oar,
Have found an eelio in the general heart,
And of the public faith become a living part.

Who shall arrest this tendency? Bring back. The cells of Venice and the bigot's rack? The cells of Venice and the bigot's rach?
Harden the softening human heart again,
To cold indifference to a brether's pain?
Ye most unhappy men!—who, turn'd away
From the mild sanshine of the Gospel day,
Grope in the shadows of Man's twilight time,
What mean ye, that with ghoul-like zest ye broad
O'er those feel altars streaming with warm blood,
Permitted in another age and clime?
Why cite that haw with which the bigot Jew
Rebuked the Pagan's mercy, when he knew
No evil in the Just One?—Wherefore turn
To the dark gruel past?—Can ye not learn Rebuked the Pagan's mercy, waen he thew
No evil in the Just One?—Wherefore turn
To the dark ernel past?—Can ye not learn
From the pure Teacher's life, how mildly free
Is the great Gaspel of Humanity?
The Flan en's knife is bloodless, and no more
Mexith's altars soak with human gore;
No more the ghastly sacrifices smoke.
Through the green arches of the Druia's oak;
And ye of milder faith, with your high claim
Of prophet-utterance in the Holiest name,
Will ye become the Druids of our time?
Set up your scaffold-altars in our load,
And, consecrators of Law's darkest crime,
Urge to its loathsome work the Bangman's hand?
Reware—leat human nature, romed at last,
From its peeled shoulder your incumbrance asi,
And, sick to loathing of your ary fer blood,
Rank you with those who led their victims round
The Gelt's red altar and the Indian's mound,
Abborr'd of Earth and Heaven—a pagan brotherhoad!

THE SOUTHERN LITERARY MESSENGER for October opens with an instructive account of 'The Liberties of the People in Europe,' exhibiting the extent and limitations of Popular Rights and im- WAR! WAR! WAR!-The Wigmunities in each country. 'Love Sketches, No. V.' by Miss Jane T. Lomax, follows, and is the best feature of the number. 'Modern Ideas respecting Education' are next desultorily presented and discussed, with some wit but no remarkable felicity. 'Florence Courtland, by a Lady of Virginia,' is a good story, fairly carried to its conclusion. 'The Life of Corneille,' translated from the French of Fontenelle, is an agreeable specimen of Literary Biography. 'The Way of the World' is a clever essay, rather humorous than sarcastic. 'The History of the Knights of Malta is brought down to 1657.

'Scenes and Adventures in the Army,' for this month, comprise an excellent history of the ' Black Hawk War,' in which the discipline and efficiency of our glorious Militia are most severely handled This is one of the best Magazine papers we have encountered for months, and bears every mark of accuracy as well as graphic power.

There are eleven Poems in the number-none of them of remarkable excellence. Among the Literary Notices is a just and discriminating review of 'Tecumseh, by G. H. Colton,' which is fairly commended. From a brief notice on "Old Laws of Virginia," we quote the following, which show that there have been other 'Blue-Laws' than those of the Land of Steady of Habits,' to wit: "CHAPTER III. As Act against persons that refuse to have their children baptised. "Whereas, many schismatical persons, either out of averseness to the Orthodox established Religion, or out of the new-rangled cancells of their own keretical inventions, refuse to have their children baptised : Be it therefore enacted by this present General Assembly and the authority thereof. That all and every person or persons that in contempt of the Divine Sacrament of Baptism, shall refuse, when he or they may carry his or their child or children to a lawful minister in that County where he or they dwell, to have them hap ised, shall be amerced. Two Thomse of Pounds of Tobacco; half to the Parish, half to the Informer." (Passed 1662.)

"CHAPTER V. An Act for the punishment of Scandalous Persons. "I. Whereas, many babbling women slander and scan-dalize their neighbors, for which their poor husbands are often involved in chargeable and vexations suits, and cast in great damages:

"It Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid. That in Actions of Standar, occasioned by the Wite, after Judgement passed for the Damages, the Woman shall be punished by Ducking; and if the stander be so enormous as to be adjudged at greater damages than Five Hundred Pennsks of Tobacco, then the woman to suffer a Ducking for each Five Hundred Pounds of Tobacco adjudged ed by Ducking; and if the slander be so enormous as against the Husband, if he refuse to pay the Tebacco

As an Act was passed in 1705 for "the building and main taining of prisons, pillorise, whipping-posts, stocks and ducking-stools in every country," we may infer that this last quoted Act was not suffered to remain a dead letter, and that eccasionally the husbands of these "babbling women" were ungaliant enough to " refuse to pay the tobacco."

PR. RUSH'S LEGACY.—That celebrated physician, Dr. Benjamin Rush, could not have left a more valuable legacy to mankind than his invaluable HEALTH PILL. It is indeed a blessing to the afflicted, giving relief in all the usual cases of sudden illness or lingering disease with which kumanity is distressed or the functions of life are destroyed. It is now expueded by the most entineat of the medical faculty, that the stomath is the seat or fountain of all disease; that it is, as it were, the centre from which proceed all the evils produced by foreign or irritating causes, and which thence spread to every part of the animal system.

The proper method of cure, therefore, is to attack the citadel in which the disease intrenches itself; and no combination of medical agents has yet been discovered so efficacious for this purpose as the preparation of the late Dr. Resh, and which, from the universal success attending their administration, during a practice of nearly half a century, were styled his "Infallible Health Pill." Their great virtue is, that they arrest disease in its first approach. They are preventives as well as remediets; and we will venture to say that it taken by persoas when they are first affected with symptoms of illness, many a osse, that is either serious or tatal, might be avoided.

Let the afflicted without hesitation avail themselves of this invaluable legacy, and they will have reason to bless the name of Dr. Rush as one of the greatest benefactors of invaluable legacy, and they will have reason to bless the name of Dr. Rush as one of the greatest benefactors of mankind.

CONSUMPTION, COUGH, SPITTING ON SUMPTION, COUGH, STITTING
OF BLOOD, &c.—TO CONSUMPTIVES.—Four fifths of you are really suffering from neglected Colds, or an Obstruction and consequent inflammation of the decicate lining of those tubes through which the air we breath is distributed to every part of the lungs. This Obstruction produces pain and screness, hourseness, cough, difficulty of breathing, heetic fever, and a spitting of blood, matter, or plaegm, which finally exhausts the strength of the patient and ends in death. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT rever and ends in death. JAYNE'S EXPECTORAST revertails to remove this obstruction, and produces the most pleasing and happy results. It is certain in its effect and cannot fail to relieve. Prepared and sold by Dr. D. Jayne, No. 28 South Third street, thiladelphia. Sold at wholesale and retail by the Agents, A. B. & D. VORMS IN CHILDREN.—Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as Worms. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they insitate the symptoms of amost every other complaint, they often produce alaming effects without being suspected. Worms are not only a cause of disease themselves, but by their irritation aggravate all other discass wandering from one part of the body to another, winding the nselves up into large balls and obstracting the bowels, and frequently the threat, causing convulsions, and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in DR. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which found is DR. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which will very soon destroy the Worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them.

SUMMER COMPLAINT, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholic, and all derangement of the stomach and blowels cured by JAYNE'S CARMINATINE BAL-SAM.—This is one of the most efficient, pleasant, and safe compositions ever offered to the public for the cure of the various derangements of the stomach and bowels, and the only article worthy of the least confidence for carring Cholera Infantum, or Summer Complaint, and in all the above diseases it really acts like a charm.

All persons are requested to try it, for there is "No Mistake" about its being one of the most valuable family medicines ever yet discovered. Hundreds, nay, thousands of certificates have been received from Physicians, Ciergymen, and families of the first respeciability, bearing the strongest testimony in its favor too numerous to publish.

por, Dr. JAYNE, on account of his PAIR TONIC, which is knocking all their business into a "cocked hat." Ladies and Gentlemen, old and young, are flocking to the Doctor's standard. Heads long divested of even the first rudiments of hair, after using his Hair Tonic, soon appear with new and flowing locks, which Absalom himself might have en-vied. Beardless boys are seen with large and busby whis-kers, and lassies smile again through their own raven ring-lets, mere beautiful and bewitching than ever. Ba d heads are doffing their wigs and throwing them to the 'moles and bats,' while the wig makers stand aghast as they behold the demol tion of their business.

What will be the consequence of this war we know not, as the wiggies are outrageous and the Doctor remains firm, and declares that 'so be things can be done as well as ethers,' and that Bald Heads may as well wear their own hair as the hair of other people. [Weekly Messenger, It may be had of Dr. JAYNE, No. 25 South Third street,

MPORTANT NEWS from Providence.

- JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT TRIUMPHANT!-A Card.-I give the public the following facts, that all interested may benefited by the operation.

The new title operation.

I am sixty-four years of age; have been for four years errously offlicted with the asthma, have tried several physicians, and taken many "certain" cures of great expense and without any essential advantage. For two years I was not able to pass the whole of a night in my bed. On consulting Dr. Wadsworth, of this city, about my case, he advised me take Dr. Jay ee's Expectorant. This medicine operated as he told me it would do. I have taken five bottles of it, and consider myself in a manner cured by it. I can now lay constortably all hight; am free from the tightness of the lungs and weakness of the stomach, which so drealfully distressed and reduced me. In short, hie had become fairly distressed and reduced me. In short, hie had become fairly burdensome to me—now I enjoy it, though I am not entirely free from other infirmities accentant upon old age.

THE cry of 'Murder!' 'Murder!' at all I times will arouse the most stupid. Yet murders are daily perpetrated which excite very little attention. Is not Consumption daily murdering thousands of human beings? Does not Asthma render life a burthen, and then destroy its victim? Does not Bronchitis paralyze the usefulness of many of our most eminent divines and other public speakers, to say nothing of the thausands of all ages and sexes who are swept into eteraity by it? Millions of human beings sink down and die by attacks of the above and similar affections of the lungs and throat.
